

PLEASE JOIN Metropolitan Pier and Exposition Authority (MPEA) Chairman Theodore R. Tetzlaff, MPEA Chief Executive Officer Juan A. Ochoa and the MPEA Board, along with art consultant Paul Klein, for the public unveiling of the McCormick Place West art collection.

McCormick Place, already the owner of the largest public art collection in Illinois, commissioned 30 Chicago-area artists to create 50 new works of art for the new McCormick Place West Building. This convention facility's

FRIDAY, APRIL 25, 2008

9am—12pm

Open viewing of art

10am

Speaking program*

McCORMICK PLACE WEST

2301 S. Indiana Avenue

permanent and large-scale art collection focuses on diverse topics and themes native to the city and state. The collection includes photography, oil and acrylic on canvas, found items, wood, beaded fabric, interactive video sculpture and more.

The goal of the West Building's art program is to showcase the breadth of local artists and educate visitors about the region's rich history.

RSVP for speaking program: 312.337.3723, ArtEventRSVP@mpea.com